

To strengthen our team, we are looking for:

Working students (m/f/d)

What you should bring in:

- You are a student looking for practical experience as part of a job alongside your studies or for an internship semester
- Analytical thinking: You quickly understand complex relationships and develop sound solutions
- Fluent German and English
- Enthusiasm to get actively involved, develop further, and help shape the future - your input is important to us!

What we can offer you:

- The focus is on your potential: we encourage and challenge you to perform based on your individual strengths!
- Personal workspace with a laptop to set up, settle in, and work – drinks and your choice of fruit are also provided
- Flexible working models: optimal compatibility with your studies
- From Speyer to the world: renowned national and international customers
- Performance-based remuneration

Interested?

Then we look forward to receiving your application and getting to know you.
